

About And Between

National Council of Jewish Women, Greater Kansas City Section July 2005

President's Message

As I write my first president's message, I am thinking about what I have just heard on the radio: Justice Sandra O'Connor has announced her retirement. I want to learn more and fortunately, I can log on to www.ncjw.org. I'm not surprised to find that a press release has already been posted, encouraging President Bush to work with a bipartisan group of senators "to identify a mainstream consensus Supreme Court nominee with a clear commitment to upholding both constitutional rights and fundamental freedoms."

Moments like this reinforce my commitment to NCJW. I know that I can count on like-minded NCJW members in Kansas City and around the nation, to advocate for people, policies, and programs that will improve the lives of women, children, and families.

NCJW's response to today's news, and the significant projects that we undertake locally, make me proud to be a member of this organization. I am excited to have assumed the presidency and look forward to working with you in the year to come.

Warm wishes,  Janet Mark

Women Helping Women/Mark Your Calendars!

Kansas Governor Kathleen Sebelius will be the keynote speaker at this year's Women Helping Women luncheon, which will be held on September 27, 2005, at Hallbrook Country Club. Governor Sebelius will discuss both domestic violence issues and the difficulties dealing with the trafficking of women and children.

Larry and Ruth Moore will continue in their role of Women Helping Women, moderators. The committee is working on additional presentations. Look for your invitations later this summer.

Honey Sale

Send Rosh Hashanah greetings to your friends and family with honey. For the third year, NCJW, Greater Kansas City Section, is selling honey for Rosh Hashanah. This year all orders must be in by September 7. Cost for honey is $7.75, which includes the honey, shipping and handling. See enclosed flyer to order.
