130TH
ANNIVERSARY

It is time to celebrate our anniversary! The National Council of Jewish Women of Greater Kansas City would like you to join us as we celebrate our 130th anniversary with a short program, light bites, and a celebratory toast.

Sunday, September 8 from 3-6 p.m.
Meadowbrook Park Clubhouse
9101 Nall Ave, Prairie Village, KS

We hope you will join us! Please RSVP to ncjwofkc@gmail.com or call 913-648-0747.

A huge thank you for the Back to School Store

A huge thank you to everyone who worked behind the scenes, during the weeks leading up to the event, and on the day of the 2024 Back to School Store.

able to organize everything efficiently and set out all the items needed to package the clothing and school supplies for the agencies. We offered a hybrid option to our 12 agencies this year. Agencies could pick up items for distribution or shop in person with an NCJW volunteer. We have not offered in-person shopping since 2019 and were excited to begin that portion of the program again.

Two of our agencies brought children to shop, and it was fabulous. The kids and NCJW volunteers so enjoyed the experience as they picked out their own clothing and school supplies. In total, we provided clothing and school supplies for 437 children!

Volunteer at the Mitzvah Garden

Join NCJW on Sunday, September 22 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the Mitzvah Garden located behind B'nai Jehudah at 12320 Nall Avenue, Overland Park. The Mitzvah Garden is a volunteer-supported non-profit garden where they give 100% of harvests to local food pantries. Bring friends and family to join us in such important work. If you have garden gloves, please bring them. Dress appropriately for the weather and don't forget sunscreen and water. Sign up here.

It takes a garden to grow a community! It takes a community to grow a garden!

Welcome to our new members!
