Order honey for the holidays

NCJW's Greater Kansas City Section is selling honey for the High Holidays. (Rosh Hashanah starts on the evening of Wednesday, September 22.) The honey can be bought as a gift for friends, families, or clients. NCJW will send a festively wrapped eight-ounce bottle of honey and a special holiday greeting with an explanation of the significance of this tradition.

Funds raised by the honey sales will go toward NCJW's programs—including the Back to School Store (provided 450 students with school supplies and clothing), Stacey's Closet (assisted 240 students with clothing needs), and the Period Project (gave 1,240 students menstrual supply bags)—to improve the quality of life for women, children, and families and safeguard individual rights and freedoms.

To order, please print and mail this form to 2244 W 118th Terrace, Leawood, KS 66211, or contact Meg Adler at adlermomx3@gmail.com. All honey orders must be received by August 15.

...and help with the honey fundraiser, too!

If you are local and want to assist in prepping the honey, we'd love your help. Here are the times for this year:

- 8/3 10-12
- 8/6 7-9

KC Wine Co is located at 13875 South Gardner Road in Olathe, KS. Attendance is free (food & drink on your own). Questions? Please contact Susan Kivett at 913-219-0823 or kivetts@gmail.com.

Welcome to our new member, Meggin Emert!

NCJW scholarship committee continues more than 90 years of helping college students

In 1933, the Kansas City Section of National Council of Jewish Women awarded the first Liberman Scholarships for high school students going to college in the fall. Since then, almost 1,000 students in the Kansas City Metro area have received scholarships from money from hundreds of donors. Learn more about the scholarship program and the volunteers who are helping high school students afford college: read the full article here in the Kansas City Jewish Chronicle.

Interested in joining the scholarship committee or donating money to help continue this 90-year tradition? Please contact the NCJW office at (913) 648-0747 or visit our website.
